Social and Political History Diploma

The Political and Social History Diploma covers all the major social and political developments from the mid 18th to the late 20th century. This insightful course tells the story of the British working classes and women fighting to gain political rights. This Political and Social History Diploma starts with the Industrial Revolution and the social changes that were brought with it and concludes with the miner's clashes with the Conservative government in the 1980s.

This Political & Social History Diploma perfectly complements our Sociology Diploma and gives a historical background to many of the social issues that appear in our Level 3 Sociology Diploma.

Child Psychology Level 2

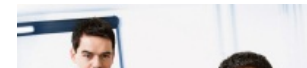

If you find children's behaviour fascinating and would like to gain more insight into their intricate minds and emotions, then this Introduction to Child Psychology course will appeal to you.

The Ascentis Level 2 Introduction to Child Psychology course will give you the foundation of skills needed to help children reach their full potential and become happy and balanced adults. This Child Psychology course is the perfect home study course to take to gather knowledge about how a child's mind works and why they behave and react to situations as they do.

This Level 2 Introduction to Child Psychology course will help to give you a much clearer understanding of the importance of play in a child's life, how they think and feel and how they develop in terms of language and social interaction.

Business Administration Diploma

This Business Administration Diploma is designed to reflect the work of administration staff across a wide range of industries and types of organisation and is for those who are working with some autonomy and personal responsibility.

The aim of this Diploma is to build on fundamental office skills or introduce students to a variety of jobs within an office environment and to gain valuable office skills.
